New Orleans Seafood Festival to Feature Top Local Bands, Chefs' Demos and Cuisine

May 12, 2010 –

The 4th annual New Orleans Seafood Festival will take place on Friday, September 10 through Sunday, September 12. This year's free three-day festival of food, music and fun will be located at Lafayette Square in downtown New Orleans.

Festival-goers can enjoy New Orleans cuisine from favorite local restaurants. Those scheduled to attend include ACME Oyster House, Arnaud's, Café Giovanni, Carnival Brands, Drago's Seafood Restaurant, Galatoire's, Mr. B's Bistro, King Creole, Pontchartrain Point Café and Red Fish Grill to name a few. All proceeds from the festival will benefit the Louisiana Hospitality Foundation (LHF).

The 2010 festival will kick off at 4 pm on Friday, September 10.

This year's sponsors and the musical line up will be announced in early summer. For more information, visit www.neworleansseafoodfestival.com.

The Louisiana Hospitality Foundation is a non-profit organization whose mission is to offer greater access to culinary education and arts, while providing support for the health and social welfare of children across the state. The LHF executes this through community outreach, children's education, hospitality industry financial assistance and benevolence. For more information, visit www.louisianahospitalityfoundation.org.
