Louisiana Hospitality Foundation Sends UNO Students to Trade Show

Jul 19, 2010 –

The Louisiana Hospitality Foundation recently sent students from the University of New Orleans' School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Administration to the 2010 National Restaurant Association Restaurant, Hotel-Motel Show® in Chicago.

The annual NRA Show is the largest single gathering of restaurant, foodservice and lodging professionals. The event brings together attendees and visitors from around the globe and showcases products, services, innovative ideas and other growth opportunities in the industry.

The Louisiana Hospitality Foundation is a non-profit organization whose mission is to offer greater access to culinary education and arts, while providing support for the health and social welfare of children across the state. The LHF executes this through community outreach, children's education, hospitality industry financial assistance and benevolence. For more information, visit www.louisianahospitalityfoundation.org.
